The Braves did a complete turn-around off their 72-90 record from 2017 with a ball club that spent 105 days of the 2018 schedule in first place. They jumped into the top spot of the NL East for good August 13th following a doubleheader sweep of the Marlins at home...Two youngsters super-charged the offense: Ozzie Albies (24 homers, 72 RBI) and NL Rookie of the Year Ronald Acuna, Jr. (26 home runs, 64 RBI). Albies led the team in runs scored (105) while Freddie Freeman posted the most RBI (98). The latter added 23 homers to the Braves' total of 175 for the season, led the league in base hits (191), and tied for the N. L. lead with 44 doubles. The team batting average (.257) was second-best in the N. L....The pitching was top-notch as well, a 3.75 ERA good for fifth in the league. Fire-baller Mike Foltyniewicz was the staff leader in wins (13) and strikeouts (202). Lefty Sean Newcomb won twelve and collected 160 K's...In the post-season, the Braves were eliminated by the Dodgers, 3-1, in the NLDS where they hit just .154 and allowed nearly five runs per game. Acuna, Jr. hit .188; Albies .200; and Freeman .250...Bench boss Brian Snitker was voted NL MGR of the Year.
