The defending American League Champions fell a bit short in their quest for a second consecutive title, but the season did not lack for highlights: The Tribe ripped off a 22-game winning streak which began August 24th and ended September 14th following a 3-2, ten-inning loss to Kansas City at Progressive Field. Cleveland then went on to win five straight games. The Tribe broke the league record of 20 consecutive wins set by the 2002 Oakland A's while finishing September 25-4 and clinching the #1 seed for the A.L. playoffs...Their .263 team batting average was second in the A.L. DH Edwin Encarnacion led the ball club with 38 homers and 107 RBI. Jose Ramirez posted an MVP-style season with a team high 186 base hits, 107 runs scored, and 56 doubles to which he added 29 dingers and 83 RBI. Overall, the Indians smashed 212 home runs...The pitching staff topped the majors in ERA (3.30). Ace Corey Kluber won the A.L. Cy Young Award with a sparkling 18-4 record and a staff leading 265 K's. He had five complete games and three shutouts. Carlos Carrasco also was a victor 18 times and whiffed 226 batters. Trevor Bauer went 17-9 with 196 punchouts. Indians' hurlers led the majors with 1,614 K's...The Yankees broke the hearts of Cleveland fans after eliminating The Tribe from the playoffs in the ALDS with a big upset in five games, 3-2. Cleveland had won the first two games at home after winning their regular season series, 5-2.
