The O's finished LAST in the AL East 18 games in back of division champion Boston from whom the Orioles WON ten of nineteen games during the regular schedule. And despite the team's worst finish since 2011, they were only ten games behind in the Wild Card chase...Baltimore was fourth in the A.L. in hitting (.260) and fifth in home runs (232) but were eighth in runs scored (743). Manny Machado was the leader with 33 dingers. Jonathan Schoop, who slugged thirty-two, topped the ball club with 105 RBI, 182 base hits, and 92 runs scored. Chris Davis and Adam Jones both popped 26 homers...The pitching staff's ERA came in at 4.97, fourteenth in the league. Highly-touted fire-baller Dylan Bundy led the staff with thirteen wins. Kevin Gausman won eleven ball games and topped the hurlers in strikeouts (179). Bundy had 152 K's. The Orioles' staff allowed 841 runs to score, ranking them fourteenth in the American League.
