The Cardinals finished seven games behind the eventual World Champion Pirates in the NL East--the 90th season of Cardinal baseball in St. Louis...Joe Torre was the National League's MVP with the best batting average in baseball. He hit 24 home runs to lead the Redbirds, tallied 137 RBI, and stroked 230 base hits--the latter two figures the best in the major leagues. Lou Brock was the majors' leader in stolen bases...Bob Gibson no-hit the Bucs in Pittsburgh, August 14th. He struck out ten and walked three in an 11-0 Cardinals rout...Joe Hague added 16 homers while Ted Simmons was second on the team with 77 RBI...Steve Carlton led the pitching staff with a 20-9 record; Gibson was 16-13 and topped the staff with 185 strikeouts and 20 complete games. Carlton whiffed 172 batters and completed eighteen...The Cards debuted their new double-knit pullover uniform tops and beltless pants similar to ones worn by the Pirates...St. Louis was 7-11 versus the Buccos in the regular season...The Redbirds led the N.L. with a .275 batting average and 124 stolen bases. They were ninth after hitting 95 home runs...The staff ERA was 3.85 and second in the league with 56 complete games.
