The Mariners' offense ended the year with crooked-looking numbers: a .237 batting average (last in the A.L.) and 188 home runs (second in the league). Leftfielder Raul Ibanez led the M's with 29 home runs. The RBI leader was designated hitter Kendrys Morales with eighty. He hit 23 dingers and topped the ball club in hits (164) and doubles (34). Kyle Seager popped 22 home runs and had the team high in runs scored (79). Justin Smoak socked 20 homers...The pitching staff's top winner was Hisashi Iwakuma with fourteen victories. He posted 185 K's. "King Felix" Hernandez led the staff with 216 strikeouts and ended the year with a 12-10 record. Lefty Joe Saunders won eleven ball games. Closer Danny Farquhar whiffed 79 batters. The staff ERA was thirteenth in the A.L. (4.31)...After 81 games, the M's were twelve games out of first in fourth place with a record of 35-46.
