The surprising Royals were a first place team on May 1st at 15-10, but after finishing the same month with an 8-20 record, K.C. simply remained on the periphery of the division leaders for the rest of the season. On September 22nd, the Royals won their 82nd game and completed the campaign with their second winning season since 1994 and first since 2003...

Team leaders: Alex Gordon (20 home runs, 81 RBI, 90 runs scored); designated hitter Billy Butler (15 homers, 82 RBI); and Eric Hosmer (17 home runs, 79 RBI, 188 base hits, 38 doubles). Outstanding young backstop Salvador Perez clubbed 13 dingers, added 79 runs batted in, and won his first Gold Glove...Jeremy Guthrie (111 punch outs) led the pitching staff with 15 wins while James Shields was a thirteen-game winner and topped the hurlers with 196 K's. Closer Greg Holland whiffed 103 batters...Royals' batters hit .260 with 112 home runs (last in the league) but were first in stolen bases with 153 swiped bags...The pitching staff also led the A.L. with a sparkling ERA of 3.45. They allowed the fewest runs (601)...Alex Gordon received his third Gold Glove...K.C. would end the season just seven games in back of the first place, Tigers, and 5 ½ games out of a Wild Card spot. The Royals won the season meetings with Detroit, 10-9. They were 15-4 versus Minnesota and 6-1 against Tampa Bay.
