Bruce Bochy's first year as skipper of the Giants...Forty-two-year-old Barry Bonds hit 28 home runs and drove home eighty-six. Pedro Feliz followed with 20 dingers and 72 RBI. Catcher Bengie Molina was the team leader in runs batted in (81) and popped 19 homers...Noah Lowry led the pitching staff with fourteen wins. Matt Cain proved to be a fixture in the top of the rotation despite a 7-16 W/L record. He led the staff with 163 K's. A vital part of the Giants success was Tim Lincecum who made his debut, May 6th, in an 8-5 loss to the Phillies at A T @ T Park. He struck out five and walked five but did not figure in the decision. His funky delivery and long mane quickly became fan favorites. Overall, "The Freak" whiffed 150 batters. The Giants hit 131 homers and .254 as a team with an ERA of 4.19.
