Adam LaRoche and Jason Bay led the Bucs with 21 home runs each. LaRoche was the RBI leader with 88 while Bay drove in 84 runs. The Pirates lone All Star, defending batting champ Freddy Sanchez, hit 11 homers and drove home eighty-one...Tom Gorzelanny led the pitching staff with 14 wins; Ian Snell was tops with 177 strikeouts...The Buccos hit .263 and 148 home runs. The staff allowed 846 runs and was second to last in the NL with a 4.93 ERA...An organized fan protest/walkout, June 30th, over the team's ineptitude and inability to retain quality ballplayers for years, resulted in CEO Kevin McClatchy resigning two days later. McClatchy had been primarily responsible for initiating and following through on the time-consuming leg work needed to finance and build beautiful PNC Park.
