The "experts" consensus predicted the A's would finish LAST in the AL West division. Oakland floundered around .500 until mid-season and trailed division leader, Texas, by 13 games, June 30th. The A's got back in the race going 19-5 in July. A three-game sweep of the Rangers at home--the last a 12-5 victory--vaulted the A's into first place by one game on the season's final day. Oakland won 11 of 19 meetings with Texas during the regular schedule...The Tigers beat the A's, 3-2, in the ALDS...Cuban Yoenis Cespedes had a very impressive season: second on the team with 23 home runs and 82 runs batted in...Pitcher Brandon McCarthy's season ended September 5th when he was seriously injured after being hit in the head with a line drive. He HAS since fully recovered...The A's played with the second lowest payroll in the majors at 59.5 million dollars...Josh Reddick led the ball club with 32 homers and 85 RBI...Tommy Milone and Jarrod Parker each won 13 games. Parker led the pitching staff with 140 K's...The A's hit 195 home runs and batted .238. The staff's ERA was 3.48.
