Pedro Feliz led the Giants offensively in three categories after hitting 20 home runs, driving in 81, and scoring 69 times. Mike Matheny clubbed 13 homers and Ray Durham added 12. Omar Vizquel carried home his tenth Gold Glove for fielding excellence. The Giants ranked seventh in the N. L. in batting average (.261). They finished third-to-last with 128 home runs...Noah Lowry was the leader of the pitching staff with his 13 wins and 172 strikeouts. Right behind was Jason Schmidt who posted 12 wins and 165 K's. The staff ERA was 4.33, 11th in the league while their 46 saves were third...The ballclub settled into fourth place of the NL West for most of the year; however, a smart six-game winning streak starting August 30th moved them into second which they held with the exception of three days until September 28th...Moises Alou did not have enough at bats to challenge for the National or major league batting titles.
