Analysis: Boston is getting excellent goaltending...NY is getting goals from all lines...the Leafs lesser players are providing a good team balance(Dupere-8-6, Macmillan-12-7)...The Canadiens have yet to beat Detroit in 3 meetings...The Hawk's defense is tough to score on in one streak they had 5 goals against in 9 games...Canucks are in the games till the last period of 146 goals 89 have been in the last period...The Seals have lost all 4 games by 1 goal(Montreal 3, California 2; New York 4, California 3; Boston 3, California 2...At one time the Kings were 7-7-1 would you believe a 16 game loss streak...talk about upsets...Toronto 8, Boston 3; St. Louis 1, Boston 10; Boston 2, New York 6; New York 10, Pittsburgh 0; Chicago 5, Montreal 0; Los Angeles 3, Toronto 2; Detroit 5, Montreal 2; Detroit 3, Montreal 2; Detroit 3, New York 2; Buffalo 5, Montreal 4; Minnesota 6, Chicago 2; Chicago 6, New York 3, it was a 3-3 with 5 minutes remaining...Buffalo 4, Minnesota 2; Minnesota had a better record against the top teams than there record against bottom teams; Minnesota has won 9 games in the third period...the 1970-'71 Bruins defeated the 1971-72 Bruins 2-1, the shots were 51-34...St. Louis 4, Montreal 3; Pittsburgh 1, California 9; Pittsburgh 3, Los Angeles 8; Minnesota and Philadelphia have had three 1-1 ties...Meloche has never allowed more than 5 goals in a completed game...Pinder has scored the winning goal in all of California's 7 wins...New York, Boston & Montreal haven't lost in 14 games...the Penguins are the un-luckiest team having lost 8 games in the last minute, they have a road record of 1-16-1...Bobby Clarke has scored 30% of all Flyers total points...Montreal has lost one game on the road...Pittsburgh fired just 5 shots against the Rangers losing 4-0...Goalie Ed Johnston has a win-loss of 12-2-0...Orr has yet to score more than 1 goal in a game...he scored his first goal in the 14th game...Walt Tkaczuk is the only player(so far) to have scored 4 goals in one game...the GAG line hasn't scored a goal in 8 games...Brad Park has had 4 games in which he picked up 3 assists...Cournoyer hasn't had a single point in 6 games despite the Canadiens hot streak...D. Smith scored his first goal for me including last year it was the tying goal against Chicago with only 2/3 minute left...Montreal has never been ahead after the first period...Henri Richard has yet to score...Ed Giacomin is 14-2-0...

into an empty net...Philadelphia is the most penalized team, second is the Rangers...Park is the only defenseman on his team to have scored...in 11 games in the last two seasons Pittsburgh has yet to beat New York, they have already played 5 times this year...Esposito needs just one more minor to equal real life penalty minutes...

HOCKEY LEAGUE

I have completed 70 games of a 76 game schedule for the 1967-1968 NHL replay using Negamco Hockey. There is quite a battle in both divisions for a Stanley Cup berth. In the West, only Minnesota has clinched a playoff spot. In the East, Chicago has come on strong to challenge Toronto and trail now by just 4 points.

I have had quite a few highlights and exciting games in my season. There was Toronto beating Boston 9-4 in a high scoring affair. Then the New York Rangers were shocked by an incredibly weak Oakland team by a score of 8-0! This was only the second shut-out of the season for Oakland. The first one came against Chicago in a real thriller as Gerry Odrowski scored his only goal of the season at 19:48 of the third period and Oakland won 1-0. A very exciting game occurred in Chicago when the Hawks and Rangers fought to a 0-0 tie. Both Denis DeJordy and Don Simmons came up with game-saving stops time after time. Another highlight of the season was Don Simmons' streak of 3 consecutive shutouts. And in my 420th game (70th for each team) Bobby Hull scored his 50th and 51st goals of the season as Chicago defeated Montreal 5-3.

As I begin my final 6 rounds the standings are as follows:

East	W	L	T	Pts	G	OG
Boston	47	16	7	101	265	162

West	W	L	T	Pts	G	OG
Minnesota	31	30	9	71	150	178
St. Louis	25	31	14	64	152	163
Philadelphia	25	36	9	59	169	177
Los Angeles	19	33	18	56	153	195
Pittsburgh	23	40	7	53	154	194
Oakland	20	39	11	51	142	203

'ALL WORTHWHILE'

Just received your last issue of ASD and thought It was great as always! I've been gaming it for 9 years and your magazine has made it all worthwhile. Through all those years I still have a record of every game I've ever played with SOM Baseball. I found completing 162 game schedules were nearly impossible and am going to make a suggestion that I hope many will follow.

If enough records and stats were compiled for a set number of games in a short series more interest would be generated by more people in comparing a short season to other peoples records and finding in doing the same. I'll start out by giving you my records and results for 30 game series that were played by myself and others in the past. 30 games were chosen because the series could be played in a relatively short period of time and stats were interesting enough to be pondered.

Below are results and records for numerous 30 game series.

All time top twelve bat Averages—(based on 82 at bats):

Yr.	Name	Pct.
'66	M. Mota	.424
'31	M. Cochrane	.422
'31	E. McNair	.400
'27	E. Coombs	.376
'64	R. Clemente	.375
'64	L. Brock	.365
'64	J. Sullivan	.366
'65	J. Fox	.363
'31	L. Gehrig	.360
'27	B. Ruth	.359
'27	J. Sullivan	.355

Readers: Please send my any results of 30 game seasons that you may have played!! I would like to start a "30" Club with people interested in short series through the mail. Write: Glenn E. Thompson, 1011 Gardenia, Long Beach, California-90813.

1951 REPLAYED

I'd like to tell you about my 1951 National League season. It's such fun! I'm only 12 and I enjoy BLM. Here are my statistics.

Team	Won	Lost
Brooklyn	68	43
New York	66	45
St. Louis	61	43
Philadelphia	54	57
Boston	55	59
Cincinnati	47	59
Pittsburgh	45	64
Chicago	44	65

My leading batter is Stan Musial with a .356 average.

Ralph Kiner has the most homers with 34.

My best pitcher is Sal Maglie with 16-7 and a ERA of 1.57.

I hope to play a schedule and a playoff and a world series, if I had the Yankees. I played a All-Star game: AL beat NL 10-6.
